
“Encountering Christ, letting themselves be caught up in and guided by his love, enlarges the horizons of existence, gives it a firm hope which will not disappoint.”

*Pope Francis,
Lumen Fidei, no 53.*

The purpose of a retreat as described by Saint Josemaria Escriva, founder of Opus Dei:

“To foster the search for holiness and the carrying out of the apostolate by Christians who live in the world, whatever their state in life or position in society.”

Why a retreat?

An annual retreat provides the personal opportunity to reflect on one's everyday occupations, family life and relationships with others, in the light of the basic truths of the Catholic faith.

Times for guided meditations, personal recollection, Holy Mass and confession in the midst of a natural setting offer the quiet we all need to rejuvenate.

The spiritual guidance of the annual retreat is entrusted to a priest of Opus Dei, a personal prelate of the Catholic Church.

The purpose of Opus Dei is to help people find God in their everyday lives of work, family and social relations.
